CRITICAL CONVERSATIONS:

TRAUMA INFORMED AND TRAUMA FOCUS INTERVENTIONS USING TELEHEALTH WITH CHILDREN, ADOLESCENTS AND THEIR FAMILIES

– A Virtual Training –

March 17, 2022
10:00am – 12:00pm (PST)

CIBHS is proud to announce the second of a 3-part webinar series for 2022 that continues the discussions started to respond to racial inequities in the U.S., and how those inequities serve to negatively affect underserved and marginalized members of society as it relates to both mental and medial health equity.

Trauma Informed and Trauma Focus Interventions Using Telehealth with Children, Adolescents and their Families

The goal of this training is for participants to distinguish among some of the most commonly used and evidence-based trauma-focused interventions in working with children and adolescent clients who present with acute, chronic, or complex trauma.

Target Audience

Behavioral health care leadership, administrators and managers, ethnic services managers, peer professionals, clinical supervisors, clinicians/direct care providers, and care managers.

Learning Objectives

As a result of attending this webinar, participants will be able to:

1. Identify and describe at least two clinical considerations when using telehealth for working with clients exposed to trauma and/or experiencing ongoing trauma.
2. Appraise the applicability of at least two core elements of trauma-focused interventions in engaging behavioral health clients in telehealth.
3. Illustrate at least two ways of addressing telehealth inequities and culturally-adapting trauma-focused interventions when working with BIPOC clients.
4. Construct and organize a tentative plan with at least two action steps on how to use telehealth tools, in conjunction with in-person work, to help clients exposed to and/or experiencing trauma.

Cost

- The cost of the webinar (CEs included) is $70 per person. Register early. Attendance is capped at 100 participants to allow time for small group work and experiential learning.
- Click on the REGISTER button for more information about the program and CE credits, and to register today.

Hold the date for the last webinar in the Critical Conversation series
