Clinical Supervision Training for New Supervisors—9 hours

Training Description

This Clinical Supervision training is a 9-hour remote training held over three half-days. It is designed to supplement a 6-hour recorded webinar offered through Simple Practice Learning to complete the fifteen (15) hours of training required for new clinical supervisors. This live training will prepare supervisors for the full scope of current supervisor responsibilities. Topics include updated legal and ethical requirements for California clinical supervisors, remote (video-based) supervision, supervision contracts, the supervision plan, the nature of the supervision relationship, strategies to be an effective supervisor, how to differentiate between appropriate and inappropriate self-disclosure, supervision documentation, and distinct supervisorial roles.

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Describe at least five changes in legal requirements for supervisors of California master's level clinicians that have taken effect on or after January 1, 2022;
- Collaboratively develop a Supervision Plan consisting of at least two components;
- Apply at least three supervision activities designed to build and support the supervisory relationship, and two supervision activities designed to help supervisees become more clinically effective;
- Sort at least four types of supervisor self-disclosure into types that are generally appropriate for supervision and generally inappropriate for supervision;
- Identify at least four common elements of documentation of supervision; and
- Differentiate between four distinct supervisor roles.

Continuing Education

This course meets the qualifications for nine (9) hours of continuing education credit for MFTs, LPCCs, LEPs, and/or LCSWs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences. Placer County Systems of Care, CAMFT-approved Continuing Education Provider #041035, maintains responsibility for this course and its content.

About the Instructor

Dr. Benjamin Caldwell is a California licensed marriage and family therapist and clinical supervisor. He is the author of five books, including Basics of California Law for LMFTs, LPCCs, and LCSWs, which is now on its 10th edition, and Saving Psychotherapy. He serves as adjunct faculty for California State University, Northridge. In his past role as Chair of the Legislative and Advocacy Committee for the California Division of AAMFT, he was directly involved in California's first-in-the-nation ban on reparative therapy for minors, and he drove the change in title from "intern" to "associate" for pre-licensed MFTs and PCCs. For his advocacy work, he was awarded the AAMFT Division Contribution Award in 2013. Ben maintains a private practice in Los Angeles, specializing in working with couples.
