

California LMFT Clinical Exam Prep

through bencaldwelllabs.com

This MFT course is designed to prepare you for the California MFT Clinical Exam (MFT CCE). If you're looking for the best MFT test prep, study tools, video lectures, and practice tests for the California BBS Marriage and Family Therapy Clinical Exam, you're in the right place.

- Quizzes & mock exams

We currently have two full-length mock exams, as well as shorter quizzes on general preparedness, differential diagnosis, and treatment planning. In total, there are more than 450 practice questions in this program. Every one has a complete rationale.

- Video format

We have more video content than any program we know. We have more than 27 hours of video lectures, geared to efficiently guide you through key knowledge for your exam.

- Taught by a leading MFT educator and advocate

Dr. Ben Caldwell is a licensed MFT specializing in couple therapy, has been teaching California MFTs at the graduate level for more than 15 years, and has fought and won many battles on behalf of MFTs with the BBS and the California Legislature. There are few people in the state with deeper knowledge of the field.

- A better price

It's that simple: We built a great product, and we charge a lot less for it than some of our competitors. It's because we're mission-driven here: We're not just selling you a product, we're fighting for you.

- Organized based on the BBS Exam Plan

So you know what to study for -- and there's nothing here you don't.

- Available anywhere you're online

Our browser-based platform works on desktop, laptop, tablet or mobile, anytime you're connected to the internet. System requirements apply.

- With you until you pass

Initial course access is set to 180 days, but if you change your test date or don't pass on your first attempt, just send us the documentation and we'll provide a no-cost extension.

This course does not offer continuing education (CE) credit.
