SUD Webinar Series:
Session 1– Adolescent Trends

Training Description

In this session we will provide an overview of current youth substance use trends. We will hear about Spencer's story from a local mom. We will discuss early intervention and treatment approaches and how to access services in Placer County. We will also provide information about where to find prevention resources.

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Identify local, state and national youth substance use trends.
- Identify 2 approaches offered locally for adolescent early intervention and treatment.
- Identify at least 2 local prevention resources and how to find them.

Continuing Education

This course meets the qualifications for one (1) hour of continuing education credit for MFTs, LPCCs, LEPs, and/or LCSWs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences. Placer County Systems of Care, CAMFT-approved Continuing Education Provider #041035, maintains responsibility for this course and its content.

About the Instructors

David Tyler Young is a clinician with a master's degree in clinical mental health counseling from Grand Canyon University where he has worked in the field of mental health for the last seven years. He has worked as a technician providing behavioral interventions and psychoeducation to children and adolescents with special needs to develop daily living, communication, and emotional regulatory skills.

Shelley Rogers is a Prevention Specialist with more than 18 years of experience in the field of youth substance use prevention. Shelley's strengths are mobilizing the community into action and creating opportunities for youth and families. Shelley is a resilient leader with a passion for preventing youth and families from ever having to experience the struggle and loss associated with addiction.

Heather Lopez - an educator for over 25 years working with youth internationally in Minnesota, Columbia, South America & in California. In 2023, she transitioned to the Placer County Office of Education. Heather works on the Tobacco Use Prevention & Education team and enjoys presenting about vaping awareness to students, staff, and parents throughout the county.
