About the Instructors

Cynthia Bigbee is a licensed clinical social worker with over 20 years of social work, mental health and substance use treatment experience for nonprofit and government settings. Experience in policy and program development & providing direct services to individuals with Co-Occurring Disorders and clinical supervision to interns and associates. Since retiring from Placer County HHS in 2018, Cynthia has worked at Granite Wellness Centers and has a private practice specializing in trauma, anxiety, depression, grief and gender and sexual diversity.

Lived Experience Speaker: I am AJ Rodriguez, and I have been in recovery from both substance use and severe mental illness for the past 9 years. I was 40 years old before I started to address my co-occurring issues. There were a lot of barriers in my life that prevented me from getting help sooner. And even when I attempted to get services, navigating the system was often complicated. I will be sharing my journey of navigating the system for these Co-Occurring issues
