Clinical Supervision Training for New Supervisors—9 hours

Training Description

This Clinical Supervision training is a 9-hour remote training held over three half-days. It is designed to supplement a 6-hour recorded webinar offered through Ben Caldwell Labs to complete the fifteen (15) hours of training required for new clinical supervisors. This live training will prepare supervisors for the full scope of current supervisor responsibilities. Topics include remote (video-based) supervision, supervision models, the nature and dynamics of the supervision relationship, supervision exercises, and common supervisor questions.

Learning Objectives

Participants will be able to:

- Describe at least two changes in legal requirements for supervision that took effect in 2022
- Describe at least three dynamics that can impact the supervisory relationship
- Describe at least one tenet for each of at least three models of supervision
- List at least five responsibilities of supervisors
- Apply at least two exercises in individual supervision
- Apply at least two exercises in group supervision

Continuing Education

This course meets the qualifications for nine (9) hours of continuing education credit for MFTs, LPCCs, LEPs, and/or LCSWs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences. Placer County Systems of Care, CAMFT-approved Continuing Education Provider #041035, maintains responsibility for this course and its content.

About the Instructor

Dr. Benjamin Caldwell is a California licensed marriage and family therapist and clinical supervisor. He is the author of five books, including Basics of California Law for LMFTs, LPCCs, and LCSWs, which is now on its 10th edition, and Saving Psychotherapy. He serves as adjunct faculty for California State University, Northridge. In his past role as Chair of the Legislative and Advocacy Committee for the California Division of AAMFT, he was directly involved in California's first-in-the-nation ban on reparative therapy for minors, and he drove the change in title from "intern" to "associate" for pre-licensed MFTs and PCCs. For his advocacy work, he was awarded the AAMFT Division Contribution Award in 2013. Ben maintains a private practice in Los Angeles, specializing in working with couples.
